European Rural Sustainability Gathering - 17-21 May 2017 – Greece

Dear colleagues and partners,

This year Forum Synergies' European Rural Sustainability Gathering will take place in Karditsa (region of Thessaly, Greece), from 17-21 May 2017.

We will focus on social economy, cooperatives and grassroots initiatives in rural Greece.

The three-day gathering will be an opportunity to meet people with a spirit of cooperation and action for sustainable rural development from across Europe. We will visit highlights of local sustainable initiatives and development action in a region with strong civil society engagement.

Forum Synergies' rural sustainability gatherings are a lively exchange of practical knowledge and experiences between local actors, social organizations and policy makers from across Europe. During this three-day meetings we bring together people from all walks of life to learn on the spot from each other about sustainable practices in sustainable rural development, civil society activities and urgent topics as access to land, sustainable farming, economic activities and networking

This event will be co-organised with:

- Karditsa Development Agency, (AN.KA SA), is an agency of the local authorities acting as the local partnership in development issues. One of its activities is to support the formation of new collective schemes like cooperatives, business networks, non for profit organizations etc.
- Iliosporoi Network, One of the main topics this network is dealing with is related to alternative education, access to land and transition activities in Greece. As Greece tries to move out of a deep economic depression, one that has left 60 percent of young people without jobs we believe it is important to look at the signs of hope and success...
- Peliti Seed Network, Peliti is a movement preserving, exchanging and using traditional varieties, native farm animals, local food systems and circular economies and organising the first Olympic seed festival in April this year
- Euracademy Association is a non-profit European membership organisation established in 2003, with headquarters in Athens, Greece. Euracademy's vision is to promote capacity building in rural areas through lifelong learning and transfer of good practice and cooperation between different actors of rural development in the EU. The Association brings together rural development practitioners, universities, research institutions, policy makers and social partners from across the EU. Euracademy has conducted 15 annual summer academies on different aspects of rural development in 12 countries, including Greece, complemented by research and project work, and has published extensively.

We also wish to provide opportunities to discuss Forum Synergies' current program and activities such as: the future of youth in rural areas, local food chains and hygiene rules, territorial civic dialogue, as well as herbs and public health.

THE REGION

Plastiras Lake lies on Nevropolis plateau in Karditsa prefecture (25 km west of the city). It is 325 km far away from Athens and 250 km from Thessaloniki. It was formed in 1959, when the dam of the river Tavropos or Megdovas was completed.

The dam is an impressive arched construction, 200 meters long and 83 meters high. The surface of the lake covers an area of about 24 square km, the maximum depth reaching 60 meters and the round of the lake being approximately 100 km.

The lake took its name from the military officer Nikolaos Plastiras, as he was the one who had the idea of its formation.

Although the lake was constructed in order to solve the irrigation problems of the area, it induced the formation of a beautiful landscape, surrounded by special vegetation.

The area all around the lake is characterized by rich biodiversity and because of its great environmental value it has been added to the Natura 2000 Protected Areas Network.

There are various small villages all around the lake with sufficient infrastructure to welcome and accommodate the visitors. Some of them are Moshato, Kerasia, Anthohori, Krioneri, KaliviaPezoulas, Neraida, Filakti, Neohori, Mouha, Kastania, Lampero – Agios Athanasios, Tsardaki and Karitsa.
