

HEMP SCHOOL NAMED FINALIST IN THE EFT GREEN SKILLS AWARD 2024

Latvia, 1 MAY 2024 - Obelisk Farm, a pioneering institution in hemp education announces that their project Hemp School has been chosen as one of the finalists for the European Training Foundation Green Skills Award 2024.

Established at Obelisk Farm in 2018, the Hemp School distinguishes itself as the only project in Europe that offers a diverse range of hemp educational initiatives covering hemp cultivation, hemp building, hemp paper, hemp food, and hemp wool. The Hemp School aims to equip individuals of all ages with the practical skills necessary to harness the full potential of hemp in a manner that respects both the planet and its people. And, is now breaking new ground as being the first Latvian project ever to reach this distinguished stage of the competition.

The ETF Green Skills Award celebrates initiatives that showcase exceptional dedication to developing and promoting green skills, crucial for advancing environmental sustainability and addressing global challenges. The winner of the ETF Green Skills Award will be determined by public vote. Voting is accessible everyday until 31st May. The voting platform: <https://ec.europa.eu/eusurvey/runner/VoteGreenSkillsAward2024Winner>

About Obelisk Farm:

Obelisk Farm was founded in 2017, and is a family-owned hemp farm located in the eastern part of Latvia, in the region of Latgale. The farm grows their own hemp and also produces their own hemp food products. At present, Obelisk Farm has a hemp school, hemp museum, hempcrete house, and farm shop. Obelisk Farm hosts a wide range of activities, including hemp tours, hemp workshops, and events, offering visitors insights into hemp uses and benefits. More information: www.obeliskfarm.com

Media contact:

Débora Paulino | E: obeliskfarm@gmail.com